

1. e4 c5 2. Nf3 Nc6 3. d4 cd4 4. Nd4 e6 5. Nc3 d6 6. Be3 Nf6 7. f4 Be7 8. Qf3 O-O 9. O-O-O Qc7 10. Ndb5 Qb8 11. g4 a6 12. Nd4 Nd4 13. Bd4 b5 14. g5 Nd7 15. Bd3 b4 16. Nd5 ed5 17.
ed5 f5 18. Rde1 Rf7 19. h4 Bb7 20. Bf5 Rf5 21. Re7 Ne5 22. Qe4 Qf8 23. fe5 Rf4 24. Qe3 Rf3
25. Qe2 Qe7 26. Qf3 de5 27. Re1 Rd8 28. Re5 Qd6 29. Qf4 Rf8 30. Qe4 b3 31. ab3 Rf1 32. Kd
2 Qb4 33. c3 Qd6 34. Bc5 Qc5 35. Re8 Rf8 36. Qe6 Kh8 37. Qf7

Do you see the brilliance in these lines,

these seemingly random jumble of characters?

In these five lines, there are tales of sacrifice and of vengeance, brutal attacks and stonewall defenses.

In these five lines, there is hope and hopelessness.

In merely five lines, you make the colorless colorful,

the impossible possible.

You give life to the lifeless.

This is the spell casted by the Magician from Riga.